

Support for the Oceanic Nutrition Leadership Platform (ONLP) Course

The Nutrition Society of New Zealand (NSNZ) is proud to offer support to its members to attend the Oceanic Nutrition Leadership Platform (ONLP) course. As part of this initiative, NSNZ offers financial assistance of $2000 to two nutritionists per course. One of these grants specifically supports a Māori nutritionist attend the ONLP course.

What is the ONLP?

The ONLP is an initiative of the Nutrition Society of Australia in partnership with the Nutrition Society of New Zealand and the Pacific Islands. The aim is to develop leadership capability and foster connectivity in the field of nutrition across the Oceania region.

The ONLP course

The ONLP course is a 6 day course aimed at leadership development for early- and mid-career individuals working in nutrition related fields within Oceanic countries.

How can you apply for this funding?

1. Apply for the ONLP course here.
2. In your application, specify that you are a member of the NSNZ and would like to be considered for the funding. The ONLP selection committee review and select the successful applicants.